$6,226,000 IN EXTRA REVENUE AIM OF BILLS

Joint Legislative Committee on Economy Compiles Figures

WOULD SAVE $1,778,000

Drivers' License Bill Would Provide Greatest Additional Money

COLUMBUS, Feb. 7.—More than $6,226,000 in additional revenue and a saving to the state of $1,778,000 in present operating expenses will result if 49 bills introduced in the state legislature and 19 bills prepared for introduction by the committee on economy in the public service are adopted and written into the Ohio statutes as laws.

This startling saving, and increased revenue was made known today when the joint legislative committee compiled these figures.

It is pointed out by this committee that in addition to the above summary these bills are in reality only 20 per cent of the total savings, the state office savings totaling millions of dollars will be made in following the committee's recommendations in regards to appropriations and budgeting.

Highlights of Program
Some of the highlights in the committee's resolutions toward readjustment of the various offices, departments and institutions and in the abolishing of obsolete offices are contained in the following outline bills:

1. The bill to license motor vehicle operators.
2. The bill creating a department of public safety.
3. The bill to consolidate the emergency control board and the sundry claims board into a single board of finance.
4. The bill changing the Ohio fiscal year back to end June 30.
5. The bill creating a legislative reference division in the state public library.
6. The bill abolishing the office of commissioner of soldier claims.
7. The bill increasing the fee for motion picture censoring.
8. The bill transferring the division of the state highway from the department of public safety to the department of the Ohio state penitentiary.
9. The bill abolishing the office of commissioner of soldier claims.

WORK OF CONGRESS ABOUT COMPLETED

Cruiser Bill, Peace Treaty and Dam Measure Outstanding Achievements

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—With adjournment less than a month away the twentieth congress has apparently written its legislative record upon the statute books with the exception of a few measures and appropriation bills.

The administration's major program has been completed, enough of a finishing touch must be given the cruiser bill. The second session which began last December and ends March 1 therefore, will have as its outstanding achievements passage of the cruiser bill, ratification of the Kellogg-Briand peace treaty and enactment of the new Johnson Boulder Dam bill.

Hundreds of bills are pending which undoubtedly will be killed in the closing legislative year. Other hundreds will be enacted but these will be bridge bills, individual pension measures and the minor type of legislation, which affects only a single locality and provokes little or no opposition elsewhere.

COOKSTON BILL HITS TAX FOR PENSION FUND

Local Legislator Would Stop Board Payments for Teachers' Retirement

FIGHT PREDICTED

School Heads Expected To Put Up Strong Opposition to Measure

Marion county's representative to the general assembly, Horace W.
Cookston introduced his second bill into the state legislature yesterday when he proposed a measure to release boards of education from paying money into the teachers retirement fund.

According to Cookston the fund which now approximates $10,000,000 is sufficient for future needs of the pension system. Boards of education however are still required to make monthly payments into the fund he declares.

Cookston's proposal if enacted into law, would relieve boards of education from making the payments but would not interfere with the payments now being made by teachers.
Cookston claims that the fund in its present proportion would be sufficiently self-sustaining and that further additions to it by school boards is an unwarranted burden on the taxpayer.

Stated in 1920
The $10,000,000 fund for the retirement of school teachers has grown to its present proportions since the pension system was adopted in 1920.
Out of every dollar paid teachers in salaries four per cent is paid into the retirement fund. Portions of salaries over $2,000 however are not assessed.

The bill according to school officials is loaded with all sorts of Teachers and school officials are expected to make a united stand against the proposed measure.

According to C. B. Ryburn county school superintendent boards of education are now paying 77 per cent of teachers' salaries into the fund. The assessments raised boards of education are divided into two funds. One assessment of 17 1/2 per cent is to provide for pension for teachers who were about to retire when the pension system was adopted. Payments into this fund according to Ryburn are continued.

Two Marion men who were occupants of a closed automobile which crashed to a 20-foot embankment and landed almost entirely submerged in the water of a creek near Iberia yesterday afternoon are alive to tell the tale.

They are Otto C. Schlietz building companion might escape. Harroff was uninjured.

An artery in Schlietz's arm and several tendons were severed. He is in city hospital where he is reported to be recovering today. He suffered greatly from loss of blood.

The accident occurred about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a wild and half west of Iberia on the Herring highway when the machine slid off on the icy roadway and tumbled down the embankment.

It landed on its wheels in the recovered creek submerged in water which came within a few inches of the top. Schlietz and Harroff crawled through the opening made in the door when Schlietz broke the glass.

Flow of blood from Schlietz's arm was promptly stopped by first aid bandages applied by Harroff and motorist who stopped at the scene of the accident. Schlietz was rushed to more than three years, Burton W. Bair, 217 Superior st. has completed a literary table that takes its place with other art products of this country.

It is pictured here with the fact of his three year effort.

The top of the table is constructed from 1,557 pieces of wood 17 different kinds being employed to form the desired color effect. The entire table top of more than 1,400 pieces was put together without the use of a single nail or screw.

The table will be exhibited Friday night at the American League League as a feature of the local Know the League Week observance. Later it will probably be placed on display in an up-town store window.

Bair started on his work which is entirely original the same day that General Mannard died in 1927 and worked on the masterpiece from time to time until its completion. In October 1928 a total of three years two months and 11 days country having been employed

Postponement Asked by Attorneys for Newstrom and Brown

Although motions have been filed in juvenile court of a continuance of the case of Elmer Newstrom and Virgil Brown both charged with contributing to the delinquency of minor girls, a postponement of the case has been ordered by Judge Louis B.
McNeal this afternoon.

It was indicated by Judge McNeal however that he would grant the continuance. In that case date for the trial will probably be set Saturday morning after Judge Clark Oscar Clark takes office.

Newstrom and Brown were still unable to raise the $2,000 bond set by Judge McNeal. They have been confined in county jail since their arrest Monday afternoon.

Although charges of delinquency have been placed against the two girls named in the affidavits against Newstrom and Brown they have not been taken into custody of the court.
In the meantime Edward C. Kunk stated that he needed additional time to prepare a defense and that J. W.
Jacobs, senior member of the law firm of Jacobs & King, defense counsel would be unable to be present at the trial today.

A demand that the case go before a jury has been made by Attorney King in behalf of his clients.

BANDIT CHASED BY GROCER WITH KNIFE

Toledoan Decides That Third Visit of Bandit Is
"Too Much"

TOLDO, Feb. 7.—On two occasions in recent months a D. Fubler grocery store has been held up and robbed by a bandit.

When a third bandit visited Fubler's today the grocer decided that it was time to put a stop to this. He seized a butcher knife and gave battle to the intruder.

Although the bandit had leveled a pistol at Fubler upon entering the store he soon saw that his prey was not to be bluffed. So with the point of the sharp knife getting nearer every second the bandit thrust the pistol into his pocket and fled.

Fubler followed and his shouts attracted the attention of a patrolman, who joined in the chase. The officer followed the robber to the railroad yards firing as he went, but the latter eluded him.

day were combing gangster haunts for the three youths who fled from the candy store of David Hoepfner

BOTTOM FALLS FROM MARKET

Reserve Board's Warning Sends Traders to Cover, Stocks Lower

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—One of the several localities in stock market history occurred at the opening of the market today when thousands of shares of speculative stocks, thrown on the market whatever they would bring tumbled all the way from five to 10 points.

The reserve board's latest warning coupled by the reserve bank warning over used by a governmental agency, left no room for doubt as to the next step to be taken to square the speculative loan bubble. Hence which loan in the stock market need not expect a penny or red cent from the reserve system. It said it effect, and helped up its statement with a demand that speculative loans must be reduced.

The Bank of England raised its rate from 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 per cent in order to stop its exportation of gold from London to New York and Wall Street bulls saw themselves in a hole.

For many of the active shares the lowest prices of the first hour were reached at 11 o'clock. United States Steel crashed six points to 17 1/2, but recovered in short order to 20 1/2. American Can dropped 1 1/2 points to 110 1/2 and recovered to 112 1/2. Other heavy losses in the first period included a 15 point drop in Dressing Machine to 170 and a loss of 17 points in General Electric to 24 1/2. A new point decline in Public Service to 59 1/2, an eight point decline in Union Pacific Railroad to 220.

STEALS RADIOS

Service Manager of Store Confesses to Robbery Charges

DALTON, Feb. 7.—The world took on a rosy hue for Roger Ungherty, 21, when he awoke this morning, but later he found himself behind the bars in city prison here, with the colors of life blasted and the disgrace of arrest attached to his name.

Dangerously is a radio operator, and he was to have taken his federal examination for an operator's license today. He was confident of obtaining a passing grade.

The youth was also service manager in a large radio supply company here.
When he arrived at work this morning, he found detectives waiting for him. They accused him of stealing $2,000 worth of radio sets from his employer. The lad broke down and confessed. He was then locked in city jail and charged with theft.

dent-elect Hoover appoints

H. ROSS AKE TO BE SUCCESSOR TO BUCKLEY

Governor Cooper Makes Announcement of Selection
This Afternoon

COMMISSION ISSUED

New Official Is President of Canton Bank, Former State Senator

COLUMBUS, Feb. 7.—H. Ross Ake of Canton is the new treasurer for the state of Ohio.

To succeed Governor Cooper made the announcement of his selection of a successor to Earl B. Buckley shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The chief executive announced that he had fully concurred in the unanimous action of the Republican state central committee in recommending that the governor appoint Ake to succeed Earl B. Buckley who resigned under "political pressure" Monday night.

Ake's Office Immediately
The governor then issued a signed commission. Ake will assume his new duties immediately.

The new treasury custodian is president of the Canton Morris Trust Bank. Eight years ago he was a member of the Ohio senate. He also was a former member of the Republican state central committee. He served as treasurer of Stark county for two terms.

Process of Elimination Selection of Ake resulted from the process of elimination of candidates by the state central committee at its three hour session with the governor at his office here.

The committee issued a statement regarding "very much the unfortunate circumstances necessitating the removal of the state treasurer."

The committee highly complimented the action on Governor Cooper's in his removal and complimented the governor on his "conscientious stand in promptly protecting the interests of the citizenship of Ohio and the good name of the Republican party."

For Full Term
Secretary of State Clarence T.
Brown this afternoon held that Governor Cooper's appointment of Treasurer Ake is for the full term ending the second Monday in January, 1931.

At noon the committee was declined over a successor to Buckley.
A member of the committee had informed International News Service that one of three men would be chosen—Ake, Earl F. Rutledge of Kenton or Guy S. Davis of Findlay, former treasurer of Hancock county, (cont.)

The chief executive went into conference at 10 o'clock with the committee.

Joseph Tracy, auditor of state, is at present making an examination of the records and accounts, and it is believed that nothing irregular will be found to have occurred during Buckley's regime.

Buckley who is 59 years old resigned Monday night under "political pressure." The governor accepted his resignation yesterday morning.

The events follow Buckley's constitution in federal court Saturday on liquor conspiracy and attempted bribery charges.

Ohio's new treasurer, is 50 years old,

Stand of Reserve Board Cracks Bull Market

1,000,000 SHARES OFFERED FOR SALE

Stocks Crash Two to 18 Points as Wild Selling Starts

CASE LOSES 15

Calm Consideration of Warning Finds Little Support of Move

BULLETIN
NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—After cracking wide open at the start industrial stocks climbed laboriously back to a slightly higher level of prices today in the market, but the exhibition of strength and buoyancy. The market had to face not only the severe condemnation of the reserve board but also the shifting of the London market as a source of gold imports by the packing of the Bank of England rate to 5 1/2 per cent. After the close of the market there was the further prospect of a rise in the discount rate of the New York reserve bank.

BY W. S. COUSINS
A N S Financial Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—There was no mistaking the effect of the reserve board's severe condemnation of the ballooning of speculative loans on the stock market. All stock prices fell morning. An overnight accumulation of 1,000,000 shares of stock for sale produced one of the most breaks in stock market history with prices of the favorites crashing all the way from 25 to 35 points.

A block of 20,000 shares of United States Steel came out at 17 1/2, a fall of six points from Wednesday's close followed by a dozen or more 10,000 share lots of the favorites at 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Western Union fell 1 1/2 points to 44. General Electric crashed 1 1/2 points to 41. Case, the favorite, fell 15 points to 40. Bethlehem Steel fell six points to 35. American Steel and Copper fell six points to 34. United States Steel fell six points to 33.

Calm consideration of the reserve board's warning found very little support for the position taken by the members of the board. Wall Street bankers charged that the business concerns have been borrowing money at favorable rates and that the stock market is making its own money. The reserve board's action was seen as a move to force a change in the money market, but it was not seen as a move to force a change in the stock market.

McIntyre on Vacation.

BY GARRETT F. SEYMOUR.
I have received from Sadie W. Donald, of Seattle, two puzzle-rochards which I do not understand which hold me like will-o-the-wisps. I submitted "A Story of the Cosmos," which is all about electricity, but the best about it is the imaginative nature of the authoress's attractive portrait: "I gazed into the sky one night, And a lustrous star unveiled to me. Then into my hands fell a globe, To the bolted door of that mystic." The opening sentences of the story also strike me as original and effective. "The science of God admits no science of man excludes God. What is to ignore the skill and intellect of God?"

RINGING UP MARKS.

The snickerers, this last winter, have been having fun with the serious minded Dr. Mansfield Hillman, the Lincolnton who sent a card

That the doctor's unimaginative wife made him conduct his experiments outside their home, presumably on the ground that she would stand for no such goings-on around her house, has been good for a giggle or two.

When the doctor blamed the British postoffice for certain delays in transmission, it was good for more guffaws, though he undoubtedly was merely following the standard Anglo-Saxon tradition—the rule that the citizen should always “cuss out” the postoffice, the telephone company or the telegraph company for failure to deliver messages to unreachable persons.

But, before we laugh our heads off at Dr. Robinson, let's remember that the world, in the last thousand years, has enjoyed a number of laughs that it would now like right well to retract. Copernicus, suggesting that there might be any planets at all of a size comparable to this earth, was regarded as "not all there." So was Galileo, who subsequently developed further the Copernican astronomical ideas.

Thoughtless men walked knowingly when Samuel H. Morse thought he could make wires carry messages. And their sons walked when Alexander Graham Bell thought he could make wires carry spoken conversation. The idea of the Italian, Marconi, that messages could be projected through the ether, instead of traveling by wire, encouraged many who are not yet past middle age. So did Reensteen's claim that with X-rays he could look right through opaque solids. Only two decades ago, Dayton folk were so convinced that the Wrights could not fly, that they refused to go out to see it tried.

Dr. Robinson may never communicate with Mars; neither Dr Robinson nor anybody else. But let's laugh no longer at efforts to do the impossible, no matter how fanatic the ideas may seem. Let's not forget that what we call our present wonderful material civilization has been developed through the ages largely by dreamers who had to dare ridicule of "practical men," while actually accomplishing the seemingly impossible.

Let's not forget that, in the very year of Dr. Robinson's efforts to ring up a lady friend over Mars, men had been flying across the Atlantic millions of persons scattered over millions of square miles had been listening to the same speeches, and the president of the United States and the king of Spain had been orally conversing without leaving their respective residences. Within the memory of many persons still alive, such things as that seemed just as ridiculously impossible, a conversation with folk on Mars, must seem to most of us today.—Minneapolis Journal.

THE PRICE OF CORRUPTION.

A venal spy system operates to spread the cancer of corruption not only in public, but as well in the private walks of life. The decision of Attorney General Bestman that a mayor or police chief who buys "tugs" on prohibition violators can no be reimbursed out of a city's funds, unless the entire arrangement previously has been made in council, comes as a rift of light through the developing shadows of a growing and retrogressive policy of so-called legal espionage.

In the old Venetian days of the Doges the Council of Ten received the mass of its information and accusation through the jaws of the Lion's Mouth—through secret and anonymous charges, further implanted therein by those who held a spite or enmity against a fellow citizen. The first leg-

The attorney general has denied a body blow to the vicious and increasing spying of neighbor upon neighbor in the interests of prohibition enforcement. The payments made to informers of a legal violation of the prohibition laws can now lawfully be made, says Attorney General Bennett, but that in such employment the terms and compensation must first be fixed by council.

A notable decision, truly, and it is one of the should occur to correct the abuses which have grown up through this evil practice, to discourage the viciousness and corruption inevitably associated with all mercenary efforts to effect socialized reforms, to discourage the man who is low enough to spy on his neighbor for hire or for the gratification of a malicious spite.

One readily may see, as was pointed out, that in the absence of adequate checks on the man employed and the formulas employed what a vast expense might be taken by corrupt officials and

But, as I have said, the rest of it is completely unintelligible to me. However, it is a very commonly unintelligible thing in the world. The professors to reform science. And the authors have, it appears, a plan to attack those who are called, and they really frequently intimate that they really are only scientists. In the second of the brochures, which is entitled "Science and Thunder," the plant is put into me, and the question is: "What have the scientists done?"

Dear God?
What have the scientists done,
You have lately watched

Which I passed around

Now what shall I do

At the end of the lonely way?
Must I further fast

There is a lesson here which people generally are not prone to learn. All the greatest master ideas that are the pride of modern science are as old as human thought. They have all been reawakened out of the slumber of the unconscious mind of man. They of the dreaming mind of man. They have been brushed up, reformed, added to by results of experience and experiment, put into modern, up-to-date dress, so that they appear brand new and spick and span with the latest novelties. But look close and you will find the ancient birth-marks on every one of them.

There is many a moment of astonishment and disillusion awaiting the man who, accepting at its face value the common assertion that modern science has utterly revolutionized human thought, sets out to read himself the story of the mind in past and among various peoples. Moreover, it Very Severe Eczema on Baby's Cheeks. Healed by Cuticura.

When baby was one month old eczema broke out in pimples on her cheeks. It itched and burned so badly that she scratched all the time. It scratched it formed blisters and later wet, sore eruptions. It was very severe and she could not sleep. She was cross and fretful and I had to tie her hands to keep her from scratching. The trouble lasted about four months.

I tried a good many remedies but they did not do any good. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in three days could see an improvement, and in two weeks she was completely healed. (Signed) Mrs. Steve Shinka, Rt. 1, Beckett, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1923.

BRITISH FIRE LOSSES
UP $8,000,000 IN 1928 LONDON, Feb. 2.—(AP)—The British fire losses for the year 1928 were estimated at $8,000,000, the highest in the history of the country. The losses were caused by a combination of factors, including a severe winter, a high level of industrial activity, and a lack of adequate fire insurance.

BY ARNOLD BENNETT

As they stepped out of the car, the two women were met by a man in a dark suit, who bowed slightly and then turned to the woman on his left. "Good morning, Mrs. Harrington," he said. "I am very glad to see you. The car is at your disposal."

But when the car had started, the woman on the right turned to her companion. "What a lovely man," she said. "I wonder who he is. He seems to know you very well."

"He is a friend of mine," said the woman on the left. "I met him at a party last night. He is a very interesting man. I shall be sure to meet him again."

Love's Awakening

THE HEART STORY OF A WOMAN'S LASTING AFFECTION

BY ADRIAN CARLSON

Mary Opens Her Heart to Madge. A mother in law search for a girl concerning the cause of Mary's brother's death.

What I said about the closet. You're a good woman, Margaret.

It was one of her rare apologies as near an admission of error as she ever makes. I knew better than to stress his acceptance however.

Thank you, Mother. I said simply and went back to my room where I found that I had thoughtfully had made a comfortable emergency bed for me upon the broad couch beneath my windows.

She had stirred. She murmured at my look of inquiry. What shall I bring you?

A pitcher of milk and some corn. I murmured back. I can eat that milk in a minute when she awakens. As I think of it she really didn't eat anything at dinner.

Just as I was about to turn back, I saw her heavy eyelids lifted and she looked at me wonderingly. At first then with ashamed realization of the hysteria to which she had yielded.

I'm sorry she said. I want to tell you why. I said making my voice cheery yet firm. Until you have had some hot milk and crackers?

She yielded without protest and looked what I gave her. But when I set down the bowl and took her outstretched hands in mine, she cried out and leaped.

Story of "America" Fireman, Taken from Train Here, Indicates Not All of Crew Shared Sea Rescue Glory

Fried's Heroic
Cross Makes "Forced Stop" Here Enroute Home

When the same determination marked the effort in the heroic Philip Fraga, a fireman on the S. S. fighting to conquer his path.
Chicago as his objective. It is his home and there is an operation for hernia which he must undergo at the end of his journey.

Taken from a passenger train at the Union Station here Wednesday by railway police, Fraga presented his credentials, revealing that he was a fireman on the Cunard line at the time the America made its heroic rescue of 322 members of the crew of the ill-fated Italian ship Florida, a few days ago.

Furnished Motive Power
He was one of the men who helped feed the burning boilers of the America during the 36-hour dash at full speed to the sinking ship.

Fraga told his story with just a note of criticism in his voice. The tale seems to reveal a slight travesty on justice.
Only gold-brained Captain Fried, First Officer Manning and members of the life boat crew had received any official recognition for the act of bravery.

Pots of gold there are at the end of the rainbow for those who tattered deep in the bowels of the ship and made the power which enabled the America to nose its protruding mountainous waves to the side of the Florida, according to Fraga's account.
They were merely pawns in the great drama.

Obstacles Develop
Shortly after the rescue dash started with orders in the boiler room to carry a full load of steam, Fraga encountered difficulty with chimneys sticking in the grate. So fast were they shoveling coal it was not given time to be fully consumed and "froze" to the grate. Facing terrible heat Fraga started to clean the grate and in so doing injured his side.

Suffering almost untold agony he stuck to his boiler until the rescue had been accomplished.
He then reported to the ship surgeon and was given light duty.

For the remainder of the trip to New York.
At New York the Cunard agency offered to make a settlement with Fraga for his injury by the offer was not satisfactory, he asserts. Drawing only half pay, so that he would still have a claim against the Cunard line, he started for Chicago, where friends are anxiously awaiting his return.

Praise for Associates No ill-feeling is voiced by Fraga against his mates who shared in the cash awards given them in New York City.

"They deserved every cent of it," he said. "However, it does seem to me that the Cunard people might have played just a

Arm Ached
with Neuritis

The arm was almost useless from the pain. The piercing pain lasted all day. At night the arm would wake me right up. I suffered terribly.
I tried St. Jacob's Oil and I got from this simple oil the relief I needed. My arm feels fine now.

St. Jacob's Oil is one of the most powerful oils known. It cures Neuritis, Rheumatism, Lumbago and Neuralgia.
It gives almost instantaneous relief to the affected part and as it does not burn or blister the skin, it is the best remedy for all the aches and pains of the body. Get a small trial bottle of St. Jacob's Oil today at your drugstore and see how it relieves pain.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them at once with Creomulsion, an emulsified crescote that is pleasant to take.
Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and helps the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs crescote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial inflammation. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crescote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the crescote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritation, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

ENDS COLD QUICK WAY DOCTORS NOW ADVISE

Templing Fast! Instant Relief—Then Cold Quickly Disappears When Treated This Way

No longer is it necessary for colds to cause needless worry or risk of pneumonia, according to experiences of numbers of Marion people. For doctors are now advising home use of a pleasant hospital method that gives almost instant relief—then quickly drives the cold out of one's system.

Mrs. Alice McNeil, for example, neglected a cold because it was mild at first. A day later, however, she started to spread rapidly, she felt "sick" and feared pneumonia. On the advice of her doctor then she started using double strength doses of Ayer's Pectoral—a hospital certified medication of wild cherry, iron-hydrate and other ingredients now used by leading clinics.

Relief began instantly! With the first pleasant swallow she felt the comforting, healing warmth—her more passages deep down into her chest in a few hours the "feverish," "sick" feeling was relieved, congestion began to clear up, and in another day or so the doctor reports all trace of the cold was gone

Note: Other cases reported daily—all certified by attending physicians

Just a few pleasant spoonfuls of Ayer's Pectoral now and you, too, will feel like a different person tomorrow. At all drug stores, 50c, or twice as much in $1.00 hospital size.

COLD WEATHER SOHIO

Last summer's wonderful Solio, reduced in special winter applications, contains more than 31% added starting quality. Even at 100° above zero! Increased volatility insures these results:

1. Summer starting ease and quick warming-up 2. Swift acceleration, knock less power, big mileage
3. Minimum oil dilution (less choking required)
4. Freedom from excessive rapids minimum carbon deposit

That's what "Summer Sunshine" under your hood means! For mile at Red-Whites and Blue pumps and service stations throughout the state.

RED CROWN changed, too

Following our established practice, Red Crown is also refined in special cold-weather standards. Reliability is increased in inclement weather, and satisfactory winter motor performance.

"Collegiate" is College Freak Faculty Maintains

Marion Star Bureau
COLUMBI, S. O., Feb. 7.—The college man of today is not the "collegiate" individual as seen in the humorous magazine and in the college "freak."

That is the conclusion reached by faculty members at Ohio State University in their survey of the college campus men in answer to the questionnaire sent them by Dr. Henry Gratton Box of Georgetown University.

In their survey at Ohio State University, the faculty members agreed on the following points:

1. The "collegiate" type as pictured in the humorous magazine and in the college "freak" is an exception.
2. Neatness in appearance as evidenced by clean shaving, well-pressed suits, starched linen and well-pressed suits is typical of the student body.
3. In the main the psychological attitude of the student body does not approve of slovenly and careless habits of dress and conduct.

"I sure was right - I lit a Lucky"

"So many people have made a fuss over me because in rowing back to the 'America,' after we had picked up the 'Florida' survivors, I was smoking a Lucky Strike. I can't see why there should be any excitement about this—it was the natural thing for me to do. Before we started out from the 'America' I made sure that my pack of Luckies was with me—I wanted the comfort and pleasure of Luckies no matter what happened. I sure was right. I'll have to admit that after we picked up the 'Florida' crew and started back, my nerves were completely let down. So I did the thing I always do at such times—I lit a Lucky. As long as I live, I'll never get another kick as I did from the sweet old toasted flavor of that Lucky as we were tossing about on the old Atlantic. I'm a hundred percent when it comes to 'reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet.' I lay off the things that would make me flabby and light up a Lucky instead. There's too much action going on in my life to have me moving around with a lot of excess weight which I don't need. There's another thing about Luckies. The toasting process, in removing the impurities, is a blessing to us who follow the sea. It prevents throat irritation which is a constant nuisance to those who are regularly exposed to salt air."
